Biography

Carmel Dunne has enjoyed a long association with Lourdes Hill College, firstly as a student, then as a staff member and more recently as Chair of the Members of the College Company. As an educator and woman of faith, she has enriched the lives of generations of the extended Catholic education community nationwide.

Carmel served as a much loved member of staff at Lourdes Hill College from 1977-79, as an English and Religious Education teacher and, later, as Senior Mistress - part of the Administration team and responsible for pastoral care of students and daily management of the College.

Carmel retired at the end of 2010, but continues to make significant contributions to Australian Catholic education through her involvement in various boards, committees and reflection days. She has been a member of the Lourdes Hill College governing body since the mid-1990s. Her commitment to Good Samaritan Education is strong and seen by her as a privilege.

Carmel was featured as one of the College's 10 women in 10 decades as we celebrated our 100 years in 2016.
