Lourdes Hill College
Deferment, Suspension or Cancellation Policy

This policy for deferring, suspending or cancelling a student’s enrolment is based on the ISCA 2007 National Code Transition handbook at www.isca.edu.au.

Deferment of commencement of study requested by student:

Lourdes Hill College will only grant a deferment of commencement of studies for compassionate and compelling circumstances. These include but are not limited to:

1) illness, where a medical certificate states that the student was unable to attend classes.

2) bereavement of close family members such as parents or grandparents (where possible a death certificate should be provided)

3) major political upheaval or natural disaster in the home country requiring emergency travel that has impacted on studies

4) A traumatic experience which has impacted on the student (these cases should be where possible supported by police or psychologists’ reports).

The final decision for assessing and granting a deferment of commencement of studies lies with the Deputy Principal Head of School.

Deferment will be recorded on PRISMS within 14 days of being granted.

Suspension of study requested by student:

a) Once the student has commenced the course, Lourdes Hill College will only grant a suspension of study for compassionate and compelling circumstances. These include but are not limited to:

i. illness, where a medical certificate states that the student was unable to attend classes

ii. bereavement of close family members such as parents or grandparents (where possible a death certificate should be provided)
iii. major political upheaval or natural disaster in the home country requiring emergency travel that has impacted on studies

iv. a traumatic experience which has impacted on the student (these cases should be where possible supported by police or psychologists’ reports).

b) Suspensions will be recorded on PRISMS within 14 days of being granted if the student is under 18 years of age, and within 31 days if the student is over 18 years of age.

c) The period of suspension will not be included in attendance calculations.

d) The final decision for assessing and granting a suspension of studies lies with the Deputy Principal Head of School.

3. Student initiated cancellation of enrolment

All notification of withdrawal from a course, or applications for refunds, must be made in writing and submitted to the Assistant to the Principal, Teaching and Learning. Please see Lourdes Hill College’s Refund Policy for information regarding refunds.

4. Assessing requests for deferment or suspension of studies

Applications will be assessed on merit by Head of School.

All applications for deferment or suspension will be considered within 7 working days.

5. School initiated exclusion from class (1–28 days)

a) Lourdes Hill College may exclude a student from class studies on the grounds of misbehaviour by the student. Exclusion will occur as the result of any behaviour identified as resulting in exclusion in Lourdes Hill College Behaviour Policy/Code of Conduct.

b) Excluded students must abide by the conditions of their exclusion from studies which will depend on the welfare and accommodation arrangements in place for each student and which will be determined by the Deputy Principal Head of School.

c) Where the student is provided with homework or other studies for the period of the exclusion, the student must continue to meet the academic requirements of the course.

d) Exclusions from class will not be recorded on PRISMS.

e) Periods of ‘exclusion from class’ for up to 5 days will not be included in attendance calculations as per Lourdes Hill College Course Progress and Attendance Policy.
6. School initiated suspension of studies (28 days +)
   a) Lourdes Hill College may initiate a suspension of studies for a student on the grounds of misbehaviour by the student. Suspension will occur as the result of any behaviour identified as resulting in suspension in Lourdes Hill College Behaviour Policy/Code of Conduct.
   b) Suspended students must abide by the conditions of their suspension from studies which will depend on the welfare and accommodation arrangements in place for each student and which will be determined by the Deputy Principal, Head of School.
   c) Students who have been suspended for more than 28 days may need to contact Department of Immigration. (Please see contact details at: http://www.immi.gov.au/contacts/australia/index.htm.)
   d) If special circumstances exist, the student must abide by the conditions of his or her suspension which will depend on the welfare and accommodation arrangements in place for each student and which will be determined by the Deputy Principal, Head of School.
   e) Suspensions will be recorded on PRISMS.
   f) The period of suspension will not be included in attendance calculations.

7. School initiated cancellation of enrolment
   a) Lourdes Hill College will cancel the enrolment of a student under the following conditions:
      i. Failure to pay course fees
      ii. Failure to maintain approved welfare and accommodation arrangements (visa condition 8532) iii. Any behaviour identified as resulting in cancellation in Lourdes Hill College Behaviour Policy/Code of Conduct.
   b) Lourdes Hill College is required to report failure to maintain satisfactory course progress and failure to maintain satisfactory attendance to Department of Immigration, which may impact on a student’s visa.
   c) Lourdes Hill College may cancel the enrolment of a student for failure to disclose a pre-existing condition requiring a high degree of specialized support or care.
School initiated cancellation of enrolment is subject to Lourdes Hill College Complaints and Appeals Policy.

Please see 8), below.

8. Complaints and Appeals

a) Student requests for deferment, and suspension and cancellation of enrolment are not subject to Lourdes Hill College Complaints and Appeals Policy.

b) Exclusion from class is subject to Lourdes Hill College Complaints and Appeals Policy.

c) School initiated suspension, where the suspension is to be recorded in PRISMS, and cancellation are subject to Lourdes Hill College Complaints and Appeals Policy.

d) For the duration of the internal appeals process, the school will maintain the student’s enrolment and the student will attend classes as normal.

e) If students access Lourdes Hill College complaints and appeals process regarding a school initiated suspension or cancellation of enrolment under Standard 13, the change in enrolment status will not be reported in PRISMS until the internal complaints and appeals process is finalized, unless extenuating circumstances relating to the welfare of the student apply. NB: Students may still access the external complaints and appeals process, but the school need not await the outcome of this process before changing the student's enrolment status in PRISMS. However, if the school has issued a CAAW for a student, welfare provisions under NC St 5.3 are applicable.

f) Extenuating circumstances include:

i. the student refuses to maintain approved welfare and accommodation arrangements (for students under 18 years of age)

ii. the student is missing

iii. the student has medical concerns or severe depression or psychological issues which lead the school to fear for the student’s wellbeing

iv. the student has engaged or threatened to engage in behavior that is reasonably believed to endanger the student or others

v. is at risk of committing a criminal offence, or

vi. the student is the subject of investigation relating to criminal matters.
g) The use of extenuating circumstances by Lourdes Hill College to suspend or cancel a student’s enrolment prior to the completion of any complaints and appeals process will be supported by appropriate evidence.

h) The final decision for evaluating extenuating circumstances lies with the Deputy Principal – Head of School.

9. Student to seek information from Department of Immigration

a) Deferment, suspension and cancellation of enrolment can have an effect on a student’s visa as a result of changes to enrolment status. Students can visit the Department of Immigration Website www.immi.gov.au/students/ for further information about their visa conditions and obligations.

10. Definitions:

   a) Day – any day including weekends and public holidays in/out of term time.
